The State Government has also taken various steps for the improvement of the health and nutrition status of the children of Madhya Pradesh by implementing various schemes, like Bal Sanjivini Abhiyan, Project Muskan, Bal Shakti Yojana, Mangal Diwas, Project Shaktiman etc.

(d) There is in-built mechanism in the ICDS Scheme for coordination with the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, as there of the six services viz., immunization, health check-up and referral services, provided under the Scheme relate to Ministry of Health and Family Welfare.

The Anganwadi Workers who are the honorary workers and grass-roots functionaries under the ICDS Scheme work in conjunction with the health functionaries, i.e. Accredited Social Health Activist (ASHA) and Auxiliary Nurse Midwife (ANM), for delivery of services under the ICDS Scheme.

As per the existing guidelines, both pregnant mothers and children who are severely mal-nourished are referred to Public Health Centres (PHC)/Sub-Division/District Headquarters Hospital as the case may be.

There is provision for a coordination committee at the District level, various meetings are organized at the District level between the Health and Women and Child Development Department under the Chairmanship of the District Collector. Also a provision has been made for organizing joint meetings, joint tours with the Health Department.

(e) Convergence with Health is emphasized upon the States by the Government from time to time.
